

How to Find (or Become) a Registered Agent

Does my company need a registered agent?

- All business entities filed in Wyoming shall have and continuously maintain in this state a registered agent to accept service of process. Failure to maintain a registered agent results in the dissolution or revocation of the business entity.

Who can be a registered agent?

- The registered agent may be an individual resident in Wyoming or a business entity (foreign or domestic) authorized to transact business in Wyoming. The registered agent must have a physical address in Wyoming.
- An individual may serve as the registered agent for a business entity if they: are at least 18 years of age, reside in Wyoming, and have a physical Wyoming address.
- A form called Consent to Appointment by Registered Agent must be originally signed by the registered agent and must accompany new entity filings. (If filing online, the filer will be asked to certify that they have received a similar written consent and must keep it for future reference.)

What does a registered agent do?

- If the business is sued, the legal documents are served to the agent.
- Registered agents are required to keep certain information about the companies they represent on site at the physical Wyoming address. Information includes: “Key Individuals” (name and address of directors, officers, limited liability company managers or members, or anyone else in a similar capacity) and a “Communications Contact” (The name, address, and business phone number of a natural person who is authorized to receive communications from the registered agent and is not an employee of the registered agent) This information is used if law enforcement or a state agency (like the Secretary of State’s Office) needs to contact a particular business.
