Wyoming State Canvassing Board to Meet and Certify Election Results

CHEYENNE, WY – The Wyoming State Canvassing Board will convene on Wednesday, August 29th. The Board will certify the election results and the nominated candidates from Wyoming's Primary Election. Members of the Board are: Governor Matt Mead; Secretary of State Edward Buchanan (chair); State Auditor Cynthia Cloud; and State Treasurer Mark Gordon.

Eight days after the primary election, the State Canvassing Board meets to review and examine the following for statewide and legislative offices: precinct-by-precinct results; the presentation of any write-in candidates; and the winning candidates in each partisan primary. Election results and turnout information for the primary are available through the Secretary of State's Office at: <http://soswy.state.wy.us/Elections/Docs/2018/2018PrimaryResults.aspx>.

The Secretary of State's Office works closely with Wyoming's 23 County Clerks in overseeing and administering Wyoming's elections. Each county's election results are first canvassed by county canvassing boards before being submitted to the Secretary of State's Office by Friday, August 24th, 2018. For a complete list of Wyoming's County Clerks and their contact information, visit: <https://soswy.state.wy.us/Elections/Docs/WYCountyClerks.pdf>.

Members of the public and the media are invited watch a livestream of the meeting on the Secretary of State's Facebook page or to attend the meeting in person:
