CHEYENNE, WY – Wyoming's 2020 General Election takes place on Tuesday, November 3rd, and Secretary of State Ed Buchanan is encouraging all eligible voters to cast their vote.

"As Wyoming's Chief Election Official, I'm honored to help oversee the election process and hope you take the time to exercise one of your greatest civic duties as citizens. Polls will be open 7:00 am to 7:00 pm November 3, 2020 at polling locations across the state," said Secretary Buchanan. To find a polling place, visit:

"For those who plan to vote on November 3, 2020, Wyoming law requires that employees be given one hour off of work to vote on Election Day. The law stipulates that the hour off may not be a meal hour and may be selected at the employer's discretion. Please work with your employer to ensure you have the opportunity to exercise your right to vote." said State Election Director Kai Schon.

The Secretary of State's Office works side-by-side with Wyoming's 23 County Clerks in overseeing and administering Wyoming's elections. For a complete listing of Wyoming's County Clerks, visit: <https://soswy.state.wy.us/Elections/Docs/WYCountyClerks.pdf>.
