Wyoming State Canvassing Board to Meet and Certify Election Results

CHEYENNE, WY – The Wyoming State Canvassing Board will convene on Wednesday, November 16th. The Board will certify Wyoming's 2022 General Election results. Members of the Board are Governor Mark Gordon; Secretary of State Karl Allred (chair); State Auditor Kristi Racines; and State Treasurer Curt Meier.

The State Canvassing Board will meet to review and examine precinct-by-precinct results and the winning candidates for statewide races, legislative races, judicial retention votes, and ballot issue votes. Unofficial election results and turnout information for the General Election are available through the Secretary of State's Office at: <https://sos.wyo.gov/Elections/Docs/2022/2022GeneralResults.aspx>

The Secretary of State's Office works closely with Wyoming's 23 County Clerks in overseeing and administering Wyoming's elections. Each county's election results are first canvassed by bipartisan county canvassing boards at public meetings before being submitted to the Secretary of State's Office. For a complete list of Wyoming's County Clerks and their contact information, visit: <https://sos.wyo.gov/Elections/Docs/WYCountyClerks.pdf>

Members of the public and the media are invited to watch a livestream of the meeting via YouTube at the following link: <https://youtu.be/LXanUoXPATc>
