Secretary of State's Statement Concerning Suspicious Mail Received by Secretary of State's Office

CHEYENNE, WY – On September 16th, the Wyoming Secretary of State's Office received a white substance in the mail. The office immediately contacted law enforcement, and was evacuated. The office has notified county election officials advising them to be aware of suspicious mail and to use extra precaution. Law enforcement is currently evaluating and investigating the incident.

“We take this very seriously,” Secretary of State Chuck Gray stated. “We will continue to work with law enforcement in monitoring this situation.”
