Secretary of State's Office Excited for Election Day, Voter Turnout Continues to Climb

CHEYENNE, WY – Wyoming continues to see an increase in turnout across the state compared with turnout numbers from previous election cycles. As of 3:20 p.m. on November 4th, absentee turnout by mail and in person was 112,824, which is approximately 44% of the number of registered voters in Wyoming. Absentee ballots must be returned to the county clerk no later than 7:00 p.m. on November 5th to be counted.

“I continue to be excited about administering the upcoming General Election tomorrow, November 5th” Secretary of State Chuck Gray said. “Turnout continues to outpace the 2022 General Election across the Cowboy State as eligible Wyoming voters exercise their right to vote. Voting is a crucial part of our republic, and I’m proud of our efforts to ensure we are ready for election day. I am excited for Tuesday’s General Election.”

Polls for the General Election on November 5th will open at 7:00 a.m. and close at 7:00 p.m. Any eligible elector present and waiting to vote at 7:00 p.m. shall be allowed to vote.
