Wyoming Secretary of State to Hold Press Conference, Announce Legislative Priorities for Election Integrity in 2025

CHEYENNE, WY – On Thursday, December 19th at 10 a.m., Secretary of State Chuck Gray will hold a press conference to discuss an end of year review and his election integrity legislative agenda for the 2025 Legislative Session.

“As a former member of the Wyoming House of Representatives, I appreciate the amount of work that will be required to craft good policy for the State of Wyoming,” Secretary Gray said. “As Wyoming’s chief election official, I look forward to working on conservative, election integrity reforms that will make Wyoming’s elections better and better. As we prepare for the 2025 Session of the 68th Legislature, I look forward to advancing several common-sense election integrity measures to serve the People of Wyoming, including proof of U.S. Citizenship and Wyoming residency to register to vote, a ban on ballot drop boxes, a ban on Zuck Bucks, and hand audits of our elections. I look forward to announcing all of these priorities, and more, during our press conference on Thursday.”
