Secretary Gray Expresses Strong Disagreement with Federal Court Injunctions of President Trump's Executive Orders

CHEYENNE, WY – On April 24, Wyoming Secretary of State Chuck Gray released a statement expressing his strong disagreement with an injunction issued by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly blocking portions of President Trump's Executive Order Preserving and Protecting the Integrity of American Elections. On April 24, Secretary Gray also expressed his strong disagreement with Judge William Orrick's ruling blocking portions of the Executive Order Protecting the American People Against Invasion.

"These preliminary injunctions are wrong and deeply disturbing," Secretary of State Chuck Gray said. "They're more examples of activist liberal judges trying to stop President Trump's common sense policies. Requiring proof of citizenship for registering to vote is common sense and totally consistent with the United States Constitution and statute. And President Trump's Executive Order stopping federal funds from going to illegal sanctuary cities is totally consistent with the United States Constitution and statute. The fact that liberal judicial activists continue to block these measures is insanity."
