Secretary Gray Praises President Trump's First 100 Days as Historic, Wonderful for Election Integrity and Wyoming

CHEYENNE, WY – Celebrating President Trump's first 100 days in office, Wyoming Secretary of State Chuck Gray released the following statement applauding President Trump's work during his first 100 days in office:

"President Trump has accomplished so much in his first 100 days in office, and so much more than any other President. In this time, President Trump has done more to protect our borders, unleash Wyoming's and our country's core industries, and preserve election integrity than anyone in our history. And that's just some of the accomplishments. In fact, there are so many accomplishments that a press release in no way can do it justice. I'm deeply thankful for President Trump's achievements, and look forward to continuing to work with President Trump and the Trump Administration on achieving meaningful, conservative reforms that the People of Wyoming want."
