Wyoming Secretary of State Continues Town Hall Series with Town Hall in Niobrara County

CHEYENNE, WY – On Wednesday, May 21st, Wyoming Secretary of State Chuck Gray will hold a town hall in Lusk to discuss his office's work during the 2025 Legislative Session, his work on the State Board of Land Commissioners, and his vote to oppose the proposed Sidewinder wind project in April, as well as continued efforts to advance election integrity and stop business fraud in Wyoming.

"I'm looking forward to continuing our statewide town hall series in Niobrara County with a town hall in Lusk on May 21st," Secretary Gray said in a statement. "I will be discussing my work to stop these disastrous, green energy boondoggle fantasy wind projects. I'll also be discussing our work on election integrity as well as our work to stop business fraud."

EVENT DETAILS: LUSK TOWN HALL
