Secretary Gray Thanks Senator Lummis for her Service to the State of Wyoming

CHEYENNE, WY – In a statement following United States Senator Cynthia Lummis' announcement that she would retire at the end of her current term, Wyoming Secretary of State Chuck Gray made the following statement:

"I want to thank Senator Lummis for her career in public service and commitment to Wyoming. As a public official holding state legislative, statewide, and federal office, Senator Lummis has done tremendous work for the Cowboy State. I've really enjoyed working with her on numerous issues, including protecting Wyoming industries. Thank you, Senator Lummis."
