Secretary Gray's Statement Expressing Deep Disappointment, Disagreement with Wyoming Supreme Court's Decision Striking Down Pro-Life Laws

CHEYENNE, WY – In response to the Wyoming Supreme Court's 4-1 decision to strike down two abortion bans in Wyoming, Wyoming Secretary of State Chuck Gray made the following statement:

“I am deeply sickened by the Wyoming Supreme Court’s outrageously wrong decision today, which is a leftwing activist decision totally out of touch with the Wyoming Constitution. Somehow, the court took a provision of the Constitution passed to stop Obamacare and reengineered it for their liberal goals to tragically codify abortion. Make no mistake: the Wyoming Supreme Court’s decision does not represent Wyoming’s values. The law that the Supreme Court just struck down was passed by the legislature elected by the people of Wyoming, while the court who struck down the law with their left-wing activist decision was all appointed. In 2023, I attempted to intervene in this lawsuit to defend Wyoming’s common-sense pro-life laws, which I felt were not receiving a vigorous defense by the governor’s appointed attorney general. Unfortunately, the court would not allow these interventions to defend the law. We will keep defending Wyoming’s pro-life values and the truth.”
