Secretary Gray Statement on Resignation of Weston County Clerk

CHEYENNE, WY – In response to the resignation of Weston County Clerk Becky Hadlock and its acceptance by the Weston County Board of County Commissioners, Wyoming Secretary of State Chuck Gray made the following statement:

“After months of investigation, hours of testimony, and multiple referrals and requests for removal from our office, I am relieved by Clerk Hadlock’s resignation. Our referrals of Becky Hadlock were not made lightly. In particular, Clerk Hadlock’s submittal of a false post-election audit report on November 6, 2024, which triggered our immediate investigation and referral for removal in March 2025, were deeply troubling. I was also deeply concerned by Clerk Hadlock’s failure to comply with a legislative subpoena issued by the Wyoming Legislature’s Management Audit Committee, in order to address the false post-election audit.”
