Secretary Gray Applauds Supreme Court Ruling in *Louisiana v. Callais et al.

CHEYENNE, WY – In response to the Supreme Court of the United States' April 29 ruling in Louisiana v. Callais Et Al, striking down a Louisiana congressional map that was the product of unconstitutional racial gerrymandering, Secretary Gray made the following statement:

“I applaud the Supreme Court’s ruling today striking down the race-based redistricting map in Louisiana. The Supreme Court’s decision affirms what we already know: drawing congressional districts based on race is not only unconstitutional – it’s a blatantly racist violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. This decision marks a turning point in American history, and a win for the American people. Redistricting must be done to comply with the Constitution.”
