Secretary of State's Office Excited About Start of 2026 Election Cycle with Beginning of Candidate Filing Period

CHEYENNE, WY – On May 14th, the Wyoming Secretary of State's Office announced the beginning of the 2026 Election Cycle in Wyoming. Candidates for the 2026 Primary Election may file their Application for Nomination beginning on Thursday, May 14th through 5:00 P.M. on Friday, May 29th. Major party candidates for the office of U.S. Senator, U.S. Representative, Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Wyoming State Senator (odd numbered districts and unexpired term of Senate District 6), and Wyoming State Representative must file with the Secretary of State's Elections Division in order to stand for election in the 2026 Primary Election, which will take place on Tuesday, August 18th. Candidates filing with the Wyoming Secretary of State's Office may file in person or online through the Candidate Filing web page. A list of candidates who have filed to run for office will be posted daily and will be available on the Secretary of State's Election Center website.

“At the Secretary of State's Office, we are very excited about the beginning of the 2026 Election Cycle and the beginning of the Candidate Filing period,” Secretary of State Chuck Gray said. “We encourage Wyomingites to contact us with any questions. At our office, we're focused on serving the people of Wyoming and conducting a great election.”
