Secretary of State's Office Excited for Election Day, Early and Absentee Turnout Strong

CHEYENNE, WY – Wyoming continues to see an increase in turnout across the state compared with turnout numbers from previous midterm election cycles. As of end of day on October 30th, absentee turnout by mail and in person was over 65,000, which is higher than comparable periods prior to the 2022 and 2018 general elections. Absentee ballots must be returned to the county clerk no later than 7:00 p.m. on November 3, 2026 to be counted.

"We are excited to continue administration of the 2026 General Election through tomorrow, November 3rd," Secretary of State Chuck Gray said. "Turnout continues to outpace the previous midterm election cycles across the Cowboy State as eligible Wyoming voters exercise their right to vote. Voting is a crucial part of our republic, and I'm proud of our efforts to ensure we are ready for election day. I am excited for Tuesday's General Election."

Polls for the 2026 General Election on November 3rd will open at 7:00 a.m. and close at 7:00 p.m. Any eligible elector present and waiting to vote at 7:00 p.m. shall be allowed to vote.
